Upon signing of the SSPA at Singapore, commenting on the Transaction, Mr. Kuldeep Drabu, Director Videocon, stated, “Videocon is pleased with the outcome of its investment in Mozambique and is committed to continue to remain interested in the Republic of Mozambique.Videocon is proud to have been involved in the success of Mozambique’s oil & gas sector over the past nearly five years, a period which saw some of the largest gas discoveries in Africa. We have reached agreement for the sale of VMRL to OVL and OIL, the two leading Indian NOCs involved in the global upstream oil & gas sector. We are very pleased that we could select and finalize sale of our interest (subject to the approvals of Government of Mozambique and India) in such a world-class asset to Government of India companies. I am sure it is a beginning of a very strong, long and strategic relationship between Republic of Mozambique and Republic of India and Videocon is pleased to have contributed its bit in building such relationship between two countries. Videocon is very pleased and impressed with the political and investment climate in the Republic of Mozambique and opportunities therein and therefore is committed to continue to explore more investment opportunities in Mozambique and continue its contribution in its development. Videocon shall also continue to explore more opportunities in energy sector elsewhere in pursuant to its corporate objective & strategy to remain actively invested in E&P activities worldwide."

Videocon was advised on the Transaction by Standard Chartered Bank, Credit Suisse and UBS as joint-financial advisers and Amarchand & Mangaldas & Suresh A. Shroff & Co. as legal adviser. PricewaterhouseCoopers, Mozambique also advised on the Transaction.
